Hobbies: reading, watching movies or shows on Netflix
Aspiration: to make the Kessel Run in less than 11 parsecs (Wookie Sound Effect)

Allison: Well thank you Anthony, (Joke about his intro)

Tonight we are going to be talking about the Greek take over of the Atrium. For the past two weeks, the atrium has been a hot spot of games, events, impromptu meals and loud music. As greek recruitment is wrapping up we are sitting down with two individuals deep in greek life for an inside look.

Anthony: Yes, tonight we are talking with Kris Koko from Alpha Sigma Phi and Bailey _____ From Kappa Beta Gamma. I want to thank you both for taking the time to be here. Once again, ladies first, Bailey please tell us a little about yourself and you org.

Bailey Intros Self

Allison: Well thank you, and Kris, how about you?

Kris Intros Self

Anthony: [Transition to Q:A]

Questions:

- How was Rush Week for your org?
- What was your most popular event?
- What would I have to do to join a greek org?
- Why should you go Greek? Or why should I go Greek?
- What does potential member have to do to be in your sorority or fraternity?
- Is hazing a thing?
- Do you guys get along with the athletes? (More gear toward the Frat)
- Tell us something only people within your sorority or fraternity know
- What opportunities does being Greek give you?
- Why did you choose that one?
- I never went greek. Should I have? Why should I have gone greek?
- Just between us, is hazing still part of the pledging process?
- Do you have to have roots in Greece to join a greek org?
- Are the benefits the same between greek orgs?
- How has this org changed your life? (new friends, learning new things, etc.)
- If you had to join a different org, which one would you pick?
- What greek stereotypes are true about your org?
- What does your org do that's different from stereotypes?
